

Reconfiguring the Workplace for Health and Safety

Employers are considering how to enforce social distancing guidelines at work. Here are some of the best practices companies are using.

SANITATION SUPPLIES
Adjust Cleaning Schedules
Keep spaces clean, particularly common areas like breakrooms or building entrances

EXPLANATORY SIGNS
One-Way Traffic
Use arrows signs to remind employees the direction to walk

CUBICLES AND DESKS
Desk Covers
Make surfaces safer for workers by using disposable covers

Choosing a Seat
Place signs at designated spots to help workers quickly take their place

Partitions
Use dividers to separate desks and departments

SANITATION SUPPLIES
Sanitation Dispensers
Help people care for their own personal hygiene by placing these throughout the building

EXPLANATORY SIGNS
Waiting in Line Floor stickers can help employees keep a safe 6-foot distance

TIP: Keep the building occupancy lower by altering schedules to stagger shifts⁴

Protecting employees is more important than ever, so following these reconfiguration tips in your workplace can help reduce the risk of disease transmission while showcasing your organization's commitment to the workforce and their safety.
